

A series of releases featuring multi-artist tributes to the icons of rock! The first was JEM Records Celebrates John Lennon, released in honor his 80th Birthday (October 9th, 2020). It provides music lovers with an inventive take on the work of John Lennon, ranging from his early Beatles days through his final recordings in 1980. The second in the series is JEM Records Celebrates Brian Wilson, which “delivers a solid rocking swag of well-crafted interpretations of Brian’s music heavily dripping with the 60s influenced jangly guitar and garage rock vibe, representative of JEM’s ‘sound’.” (Endless Summer Quarterly). The latest is JEM Records Celebrates Pete Townshend, a veritable “Who’s Who” of JEM artists providing ‘Meaty, Beaty, Big and Bouncy’ interpretations of classic Who cuts.
